

EXTENSIONS OF REMARKS

IN RECOGNITION OF RECORDING ARTS DAY ON CAPITOL HILL

HON. STENY H. HOYER

OF MARYLAND

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, November 1, 2005

Mr. HOYER. Mr. Speaker, I would like to recognize the success of the first ever Recording Arts Day on Capitol Hill, which was held on September 7, 2005. This grassroots advocacy day for music was organized by The Recording Academy, in conjunction with the Recording Arts and Sciences Congressional Caucus, of which I am proud to co-Chair with Representative MARY BONO.

Recording Arts Day brought 20 music associations and more than 100 music professionals to the Hill to discuss a variety of issues with Members of Congress, including protecting intellectual property rights, bolstering music education and emphasizing the importance of music preservation. Musicians, songwriters, singers, producers and other key members of the music community shared their experiences and raised awareness of the important role that the recording arts play in our culture and economy.

Music is one of our country's greatest and largest exports, in addition to touching millions of lives around the world. Recording Arts Day seeks to ensure that the private and public sectors are working together on these causes in order to nurture future artists and support music.

Mr. Speaker, I would once again like to recognize Recording Arts Day and thank The Recording Academy, and its president Neil Portnow, for organizing this great event.

TRIBUTE TO ROSA PARKS

SPEECH OF

HON. CAROLYN B. MALONEY

OF NEW YORK

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, October 26, 2005

Mrs. MALONEY. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to honor the life and work of Rosa Parks, a pioneer of the civil rights movement, who passed away on October 24, 2005. She will not soon be forgotten. In a moment of defiance, America's history forever changed. On one December day in 1955, Rosa Parks defied the social injustices that were plaguing the United States and made a statement by refusing to surrender her bus seat to a white man. This historic day in Montgomery, Alabama gave a spark to the civil rights movement. In a time and place of great danger, Rosa Parks was a leader among those brave individuals who sought to overcome racial discrimination and bigotry.

Rosa Parks knew the dangers and potential consequences of her actions, but she also had a greater sense of what was right and what was just. Her passion for freedom and equality should serve as an inspiration for generations to come, just as it did during the uncertain times of the 1950s and 1960s. When she refused to give away her seat, Mrs. Parks was not looking for any sort of attention or fame. She was simply asserting her fundamental rights as a woman and an American that serve as the foundation of the United States.

Today, and forever, we will honor the memory of Rosa Parks. History will remember her as one of the greatest Americans. Rosa Parks will forever walk among the heroes of justice and freedom.

CONGRATULATING BOY SCOUT TROOP 20 OF THE TOQUA DISTRICT, GREAT SMOKY MOUNTAIN COUNCIL ON ITS FIFTIETH ANNIVERSARY

HON. JOHN J. DUNCAN JR.

OF TENNESSEE

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, November 1, 2005

Mr. DUNCAN. Mr. Speaker, every Boy Scout of America Troop deserves recognition, and I am proud to have many active Troops in my District which are making a tremendous difference in our communities every day.

I rise today though to recognize Boy Scout Troop 20 of the Toqua District, Great Smoky Mountain Council in Knoxville, Tennessee. Troop 20 is celebrating its 50th anniversary this month.

For half of a century Troop 20 has been practicing the outstanding principles of Scouting and making Knoxville a better community. I believe every Member of this body shares the gratitude I have for this Troop, its leaders and scouts, both past and present.

Troop 20 has actively participated in collecting food goods for the homeless as part of the "Scouting for Food" program. The Scouts and leaders of this Troop have made countless improvements to area churches, parks and community facilities. They have assisted in many other civic oriented projects and have always displayed a sincere desire to serve those around them.

I have had the distinct honor of presenting many Scouts of Troop 20 with a United States Flag as they are awarded the prestigious Eagle Scout designation. Every Scout though of Troop 20 has distinguished himself as an upstanding member of our community and a fine citizen of our Nation.

Mr. Speaker, I ask that the United States House of Representatives join me in saying congratulations to Boy Scout Troop 20 for 50 years of service and distinction.

HONORING ROBERT RINGLEIN

HON. DALE E. KILDEE

OF MICHIGAN

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, November 1, 2005

Mr. KILDEE. Mr. Speaker, I rise before you today with a heavy heart, as I ask my colleagues in the 109th Congress to join me in honoring the life and accomplishments of a great man and a great friend, Robert Ringlein of Swartz Creek, MI, who died October 30. I am deeply saddened by this loss, for I have known the Ringlein family for many years, and count them among my closest friends.

It has been said that "death ends a life, not a relationship," and this is certainly the case with all those who have ever come into contact with Bob Ringlein. Born and raised in my hometown of Flint, MI, Bob attended St. Mary's School and St. Mary's Parish. After high school, he enlisted in the United States Armed Forces, where he honorably served for four years in the U.S. Air Force during the Korean War. After the war, Bob returned to Michigan and began working for General Motors at Buick Plant #36. He also joined the United Auto Workers, where he strived to do whatever he could to ensure that a strong, equitable, and positive environment existed in the workplace and throughout the community.

Outside of work, Bob was heavily active with the Knights of Columbus. For many years, he represented Flint Council #695 with distinction, including his time spent as Grand Knight. Together with the Knights, Bob was constantly at the forefront of campaigns designed to improve the Greater Flint Area, and make it a better place in which to live. The effect they have had, and continue to have on a local, state, and national level is tremendous, and I have always appreciated Bob's leadership and insight during these times.

Bob leaves to cherish and carry on his legacy his wife of nearly 50 years, Marilyn, their three daughters Sharon, Kathy, and Teresa, and son Christopher.

Mr. Speaker, I ask the House of Representatives to join me in offering condolences to the family of Mr. Robert Ringlein, and in thanking them for sharing him with our community. It is people like Bob, who make it their life's work to improve the quality and dignity of life for us all, that inspire us to greater efforts. I, along with the family and all those who have been impacted by Bob will truly miss him greatly.
